TEUTONS CARRY PEACE CAMPAIGN TO MEXICO

Misstatement, Says Amerlean Forces Cannot Win.

(By Robert H. Murray.)

Mexico City.—(Copyright, N. Y. World.)

—Germany and Austria inaugurated their peace offensive in Mexico today by a long intervisy with Kolomon Kania vin Kanya, the Austrian minister, which is published in the local pro-German newapapers. The minister, who misstates every essential fact, said, in part:

—The whole world knows well that Austria has assumed a purely defensive position in this war. When Archduke Frank Ferdinand, the heir apparent to the dual kingdom, was murdered at Sarajevo, the Austrian government asked of the Belgrade govarnment the necessary apolosies, whereupon Austria was instantly attacked by Russia. Austris had to defend herself agaiast four aggressors—Russia, Serbia, Raly and Rumania, supported on the seas by the Angio-French navice. This defensive fight is now ended victoriously by the elimination of Russia and its vasal, Serbia, and by convincing Rumania that it is better for its future well-being to units itself with the central empires.

—The new Rumanian government now turns frankly toward Germany and Austria. Our defensive triumph was helped also by the tremendous defeat of Italy last year, which has made it impossible for the Raifins to invade our territory on the side which they coveted most. Once its frontiers are free from the agreement and also by the tremendous defeat of Italy last year, which has made it impossible for the Raifins to invade our territory on the side which they coveted most. Once its frontiers are free from the agreement and provided any benefits been derived from Austria's peace proposals. No! All our efforts have been in vain.

—This us proof enough of the ambitton of our enemies. If, in spite of this, Austria repeats its peace proposals today, it is only because of the growing desire of all the nations of the world to establish peace, and with the firm conviction, based upon four years of war, that the allies may early the provided and the summan proceedings. Apparently all the member

"If they think to intimidate Austria by this they are mistaken. Our initative is inspired only by a sincere love for peace, not because we fear that, if the war goes on, the central empires will lose. For if we thought so Count Burian would not have said: 'During the preliminary peace negotiations we shall not cease our war activities for a minute.'

"LEAGUE OF NATIONS WAY TO PEACE" SET FORTH BY REICHSTAG MEMBER

Amsterdam, Sept. 24.—A draft of a constitution for a league of nations, worked out in detail by Mathias Ergberger, clerical member of the German reichstag, is published in the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin. It is taken from abbook entitled "The League of Nations; the Way to Peace," which 'r:berger soon will publish. The first section of this constitution, dealing with the organization of such a league says, "and sovereign states can enter the league who shall be considered to have formed with the following powers, are among those who have announced adherence: Germany, Great Britain, France, United States and Russia."

The Hague would be the seat of the States and Russia."

The Hague would be the seat of the league. Each state with the approvat of its parliament would appoint one delegate. The international bureau would be controlled by a permanent administrative council, consisting of the representatives of the _erated powers with the Dutch foreign n.inister as chairman. Dealing with fundamental laws, the second section says:

"The league shall guaranter the territorial possessions of each federated state as well as undisturbed possession of colonies." Each state would be independent in the conduct of its internal and foreign affairs within the limits of the league's constitution. States whose governments with the assent of their arritances delegate these dependent in the conduct of its internal and foreign affairs within the limits of the lengue's constitution. States whose governments with the assent of their parliaments, declare their permanent neutralization, would be recognized by all members of the league as permanently neutral and would c joy the league's protection. All available means would be used against any federal state outside of the leag e which attacks a federal state or takes up arms without having applied to the arbitration court or awailed its judgment, or which takes arms instead of accepting its judgment.

Reduce Armed Forces.

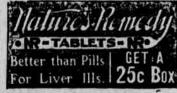

Members of the league would mutually undertake to cut down and steadily reduce their land, naval and serial forces according to a fixed stendard to be agreed upon. They would further undertake not to use their forces for any other objects than the maintenance of internal order, defense of their territory against attack and for joint execution of the league's mandates. Figures showing the annual expenditure for armament, the number of troops under arms, were materials in hand and the number of worships in commission would be communicated annually to the Hague bureau which could publish them. The constitution provides for economic equality and for the principle of the open door, all members of the league granting each other most favored nation treatment.

Divide Surplus Materials.

For the first decade after the foundation of the league each states' surplus of raw materials would be divided between the other federal states, according to a standard to be agreed upon.

This would be irrespective of the imports of the year, the output and the special needs of individual states due to the war. Members of the league would recognize freedom of the seas, Straits, canals and connecting seas both banks of which are not in possession of the same federal state would be increased by a commanded in rotation every three years by a delegate of the states.

Safety of private property on the high sens would be preclaimed and their forti in Africa would be perpetually neutral states.

The third section: Violatora.

The third section dealing with the league's executive department provides that in event of offenses, members will proceed against the violator of the constitution, first by severance of diplonatic relations; second, complete isolation of the offender by closing frontiers to imports exports, peats and railroad traffic, and third, in given circumstances by blockade. The same measures would be taken against uny hostile menace of a federated state from a nonmember. Should the offending state cross its frontiers with hostile intent against one or more members of the league, joint military and marine assistance would be given.

Erzberger invites criticisms of his plan, as well as practical counter proposals.

TURKS IN PALESTINE TAKEN BY SURPRISE

Boldness of Gen. Allenby's Plan Completes Discomfiture

of Enemy.

London, Sept. 23.—Gen. Allenby's remarkable success in Palestine was achieved against a total enemy strength of 100,000 Turks, according to official dispatches reaching London. Figures as to the number of men in the Turkish army in the Holy Land have hitherto referred merely to rife have hitherto referred merely to rifle strength. The Turkish forces held po-sitions of exceptional strength with three lines of well-dug trenches and abundant artillery and machine gun protection.

The Turks were completely surprised, according to Reuter's correspondent in Palestine. The mobility of the allied forces and the boldness of Gen. Allenby's plan of hitting at the strongest point in the Turkish defenses added to the success. The rush of the British cavairy completed the enemy's discomfiture. The Turkish reserves consisted of troops which recently arrived from the Caucasus. Field Marshal Liman von Sanders. commander of the Turkish forces, and his staff escaped captured by only six hours.

Not the least remarkable feature of Gen! Allenby's success lies in the reorganization be effected in his forces since the German offensive on the western front last March necessitated the withdrawal to France of a part of his arms.

to Run for U. S. Senator Dublin, Ga., Sept. 24.—S. H. His action, he says, is the result of the announcement that cotton prices will be fixed by the government, to which Williams is opposed. Williams claims to have lost $30,000 from the effect on the market of the price-fixing announcement.

WAR PRODUCTION INJURED

By Extravagant Advertising Matter inserted in Newspapers.

Washington, Sept. 24.—Several months ago a large operation near Philadelphia inserted large advertisements in Ohio newspapers offering certain classes of workmen a little higher than the normal wage then prevalent in Ohio, and added. "And double time for Sundays and holidays: plenty of overtime all the time."

Hundreds of men left war manufacturing jobs in central and northern Ohio and paid their way to this plant. A very large number of them were of crafts not yet needed by the plant, although the advertisement had called for them. These men were turned away. They had lost many days and wasted considerable sums upon travel and subsistence. Many of them were left destitute and hundreds drifted into nearby cities, broken in spirit and embittered against the government and our country.

For several weeks the municipal authorities of these cities were compelled to feed and lodge large numbers of these broken men, and there is good reason to fear that many of them have become casual workers. Those who were actually hired found the promise of "plenty of overtime" was not kept, while the locally impossible housing conditions and living costs soon disgusted and drove them out to seek more congenial even if nominally less-well-paid employment.

SERVICE CALLS ON WOMEN

SERVICE CALLS ON WOMEN

Government Departments Short 2,000 Stenographers—Demand Increasing.

Washington, Sept. 24—To meet an acute and growing shortinge of stenographers and typists for war work, the United States employment service of the department of labor is preparing a nation-wide campaign to recruit women qualified for trained clerical service. The object is to secure workers, particularly in government offices at Washington which are outside the classified civil service commission in recruiting for positions classed under the civil service law.

At the present time there are unfilled requests for upward of 2,000 stenographers filed with the woman's service of the United States employment service by try a little Danderine,—(Adv.)

government offices alone. One bureau states that 600 qualified women can be placed at work immediately. An idea of the demand for war workers at the national capital is seen in the statement of the United States civil service commission that approximately 13,000 stonographers have secured posts in Washington in the past eighteen months. The number placed in the eighteen months preceding was about 2,000.

While the need is most acute in Washington, the growth of war industries and the steady influx of women war workers to the capital from all parts of the country has created a demand which is serious in many sections. Branch offices of the employment service all over the country have therefore been instructed to pay special attention to the recruitment of women qualined for this form of war work. Applicants who can be placed in positions in Washington which are outside the classified civil ervice, or in essential industries, will receive immediate appointment. The minimum beginning salary paid by the government for stenographers is usually $1,100 a year, and a similar scale is generally observed by private employers engaged on war contracts.

STRIKE WIDESPREAD.

London District of Great Northern Road Affected.

London, Sept. 24.—Parts of the London district served by the Great Northern railway were affected by the spread of the railway strike this morning. Few trains arrived at the Paddington station. Passengers on local lines had to seek transportation on fram ears and electric trains to get into the city.

The service on the north London railway was suspended in view of the strike of drivers. It is feared that the trouble will seriously interfere with the transportation of goods, this line having traffic arrangement with other railways serving the docks.
